

Preface

This volume contains the revised version of a selection of papers presented at the B 2011 Workshop, a satellite event of the 17th International Symposium on Formal Methods (FM 2011). It took place in Limerick, Ireland, on 21st June, 2011.

The B 2011 workshop gathered together the B community to address a large spectrum of themes, from theoretical advances, tool support, industrial practice and new application domains. Papers have been reviewed according to a rigorous refereeing process and only papers dedicated to theoretical advances have been selected for this issue. It also includes a long version of the invited talk, presented by Marc Benveniste, the Formal Methods Expert of the Secure Microcontrollers Division at STMicroelectronics-Rousset.
