

Deposit Agreement between the Author and the University of Surrey

1. Thesis version

I confirm that the electronic copy I am depositing is the version of record. This version is as approved by the examiners at the time of the award of my degree. I understand that I can provide additional supporting documentation and multimedia as separate files.

2. Author's rights

In granting permission to deposit the thesis in Eprints, I am also granting permission to make the thesis available on SRI Open Access, the University of Surrey's open-access, not-for-profit repository <<http://epubs.surrey.ac.uk>>, and the British Library EThOS repository <http://ethos.bl.uk>, I understand that:

2.1 Rights granted to the University of Surrey, the British Library and the user of the thesis through this agreement are non-exclusive. I retain all rights in the Work in its present version or future versions.

2.2 Work deposited in SRI Open Access and with the British Library will be accessible to individuals and institutions via the Internet subject to the terms and conditions I grant below to the University of Surrey and the British Library and to the users of the thesis. I understand that, through the medium of the Internet, files will also be available to automated agents, and may be searched and copied by text mining and plagiarism detection software.

3. Copyright Declaration.

I DECLARE AS FOLLOWS:

That I have exercised reasonable care to ensure that the Work is original, and does not to the best of my knowledge break any UK law or infringe any third party's copyright. If my thesis does include any substantial subsidiary material owned by third-party copyright holders, I have sought and obtained permission to include it in any version of my Work available in digital format and this permission encompasses the rights that I have granted to the University of Surrey and to the British Library. I understand that ensuring that the thesis abides by UK copyright law and does not infringe any third party copyright is my own responsibility and that the University of Surrey is not liable in case of copyright infringement. If permission has been necessary to reproduce any third party material, I supply the relevant documents.

That

my thesis does not to the best of my knowledge infringe any other Intellectual Property Right or contain any confidential material.

if I have requested that this thesis is restricted for a specific embargo period, it is my responsibility to review any pending commercial, IPR or confidentiality issues affecting online availability of the thesis at the end of the embargo period, and to request an extension via the University Library if this is required.

I understand that neither the University of Surrey nor the British Library have any obligation to take legal action on behalf of myself, or other rights holders, in the event of infringement of intellectual property rights, breach of contract or of any other right, in the Work.

I understand that the University of Surrey Library can remove the thesis from view if they receive a complaint that the thesis infringes intellectual property rights or moral rights of a third party or if it is offensive or unacceptable in some other way. (See University of Surrey Take-Down Policy)

Ebrahim Shariatzadeh

02.04.2015